A NEGRO'S ELOQUENCE.

THE SUCCESSFUL ADDRESS OF A NEGRO ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

The Dallas, Texas, Times recites the details of a case that certainly presents some of the most remarkable features known in the history of jurisdiction in this country. This occurred at Waxahachie during the last term of the Ellis County District Court. A colored man was indicted for entering into a conspiracy to murder. He was brought to trial, the valuable premiums among our subevidence was strong, and in spite of the good fight made in his defense by his scriber will get a ticket in the distristroney, he was convicted. Got on an extra? "Yes." "Unlimber."

"The whittling preacher handed ver a large Remington pistol, which the insulted preacher took and, drawng one from his belt, started out After going out there was an immed iate improvement in the firing busi-nesss. It was more lifelike, insomuch that the deacons sat working their fiugers. After a while the minister returned, and placing an ear and the nostril and a half of a nose on the pulpit, remarked: 'He that hath ears to sure. You'll never be so when we are hear, let him behave himself." sermon then proceeded without inter-
